MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

Customer Complaint Policy and Procedures Westminster Mutual Insurance Company

Introduction

Westminster Mutual Insurance Company (herein referred to as 'Westminster' or the 'Company') seeks to maintain its reputation as a Mutual Company that delivers high quality, professional services. Westminster is also committed to maintaining its responsiveness to the needs and concerns of its clients.

This policy is designed to provide guidance to its clients on the manner in which Westminster will receive and handle complaints made against the Company, or any of its representatives.

What is a complaint?

A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction made to the Company, related to its products or services, or the complaint-handling process itself, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected.

Any complainant who is dissatisfied with a product or service provided by Westminster, for any reason, may contact the Company to complain. A complaint may be initiated orally or in writing.

Guiding Principles of Effective Complaint Handling

Principle
Visibility	The Complaint Handling Policy is available on the Company's website at www.wmic.ca or may be obtained at its principal office.
Accessibility	The Complaint Handling Policy is readily accessible to all partners, employees and clients. The policy is to be understandable and includes details on making and resolving complaints.
Responsiveness	Receipt of each complaint is acknowledged to the complainant immediately. Complaints will be handled in an efficient and effective manner. Complainants will be treated courteously and kept informed of the progress of their complaint throughout the complaint handling process.
Objectivity	Each complaint will be addressed in an equitable, objective and unbiased manner through the complaint handling process.
Charges	There will be no charge to the complainant for making a complaint.
Confidentiality	Personally identifiable information concerning the complainant is actively protected from public disclosure unless the complainant expressly consents to its disclosure.
Customer-focused Approach	All partners and employees of Westminster are committed to efficient and fair resolution of complaints. We actively solicit feedback from our clients on a regular basis and acknowledge a client's right to complain.
Accountability	All employees accept responsibility for effective complaint handling. The Complaint Officer will ensure that, where appropriate, issues raised in the complaint handling process are reflected in employee performance evaluations.
Continual Improvement	The complaint handling process will be reviewed periodically, and at least annually, to enhance its efficient delivery of effective outcomes.
